FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear People of God,

Praise the Lord! We have a new month 'November' which is dedicated to the remembrance of all Souls. We are called to pray specially for the repose of all souls. It is also good to visit the cemetery for an extra-plenary indulgences especially for the 8 days of this month of All Souls to alleviate the poor souls in Purgatory. Because it is based on our Creed "Resurrection of Life" The liturgy of the word on this Sunday, also invites us to contemplate on the mystery of God in relation to human death and Resurrection! Jesus assures us that there is life after death because our God is the God of life.

The first reading of today speaks about the Martyrdom of seven brothers and their mother. The promise of resurrection was very important to them. They became martyrs in a rebellion against a tyrant. Their faith in the resurrection gave them the courage to die, and eventually to defeat their enemy. During their torture, three of the brothers speak, and each of them finds strength in the belief that he will eventually be raised and rewarded by God.

Today's Gospel is also about resurrection of the dead! The Sadducees were only looking for a way to trap Christ. Also, they wanted to justify their belief that life ends here on earth. However, they were wrong. Through his discussion with them, Christ reassures us that life does not end here and also they will live like Angels in heaven for ever. Hence Paul reminds us that: "If our hope in Christ is only for this life, then we deserve more pity than anyone else (I Cor 15:19). Our hope must not end here because we are on a journey toward eternal life in Christ.

Today, we are called to hold on to the hope we have in the joyful fulfillment of God's promises and in our resurrection in Christ. Living as sons & daughters of the resurrection is about how we live right now, not just after we die. Let us remember that "our God is not God of the dead but of the living, for to Him all are alive. So let us trust in His resurrection and try to live our present life meaningfully and fruitfully. Have a Happy and Blessed Sunday!

Yours in Christ Jesus

Fr. Doss

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PATRON SAINT

A saint to whose protection and intercession a person, a society, a church, or a place is dedicated. The choice is often made on the basis of some real or presumed relationship with the persons or places involved. St. Patrick, for example, is the patron saint of Ireland because he is credited with bringing Christianity to the Irish people. In Roman Catholicism a person often elects a personal patron saint during their confirmation.

SAINT LAWRENCE

(died 258, Rome [Italy]; feast day August 10), one of the most venerated Roman martyrs, celebrated for his Christian valour. He is the patron saint of the poor and of cooks.

Lawrence was among the seven deacons of the Roman church serving Pope Sixtus II, whose martyrdom preceded Lawrence's by a few days: they were executed during the persecution under the Roman emperor Valerian. It is said that Lawrence gave the church's treasures to the poor and the sick before his arrest. There are many miracles associated with St. Lawrence.

A priest named Fr. Sanctulus was rebuilding a church of St. Lawrence, which had been attacked and burnt, and hired many workmen to accomplish the job. At one point during the construction, he found himself with nothing to feed them. He prayed to St. Lawrence for help, and looking in his basket he found a fresh, white loaf of bread. It seemed to him too small to feed the workmen, but in faith he began to serve it to the men. While he broke the bread, it so multiplied that his workmen fed from it for ten days.

Many conversions to Christianity through out Rome reportedly followed Lawrence's death, including those of several senators witnessing his execution. The Basilica of San Lorenzo Fuori le Mura (St. Lawrence Outside the Walls), Rome, was built over his burial place. He is named in the canon of the Roman mass.

FOCUS ON ENERGY LIGHTBULBS

We have more! Focus on Energy is partnering with Wisconsin utilities to help residents save money on their electrical cost. We have more to hand out to parishioners. They are free of charge. Take as many as you can use. When we are done handing these out he will send more if needed. They will be in the back of church or you can also call Connie in the office to get some.
