FROM OUR PASTOR

Luke's Gospel is the only one to report the exchange between Jesus and the Pharisees as Jesus enters Jerusalem. Jesus' response shows that this event and those yet to come, are part of a divine plan. We hear this echoed again in Luke's description of the Last Supper when Jesus speaks of Judas's betrayal, saying that the Son of Man "goes as has been determined." Throughout Luke's Gospel we see that Jesus' words and actions proclaim the Kingdom of God. This motive continues throughout the passion narrative. Jesus appears to be in total command of events at the Passover meal as he hands over the kingdom to his disciples. He welcomes them to the Passover meal announcing that this will be his last until the kingdom of God is fulfilled.

Jesus initiates a conversation with Simon and predicts his denial. Jesus then instructs his disciples to prepare themselves for the events that will follow. His words reveal an awareness of the challenges that all of them will face in the days ahead. As the disciples and Jesus enter the Mount of Olives, Jesus indicates the importance of the disciples' time in prayer, telling them that through prayer they will be able to face the challenges ahead. As Jesus prays, He is tested. In the garden, the angel is sent to strengthen him and to prepare him for the events ahead. After this moment, Jesus is again in charge of the events and circumstances.

In Luke's Gospel, Jesus is portrayed as active and vocal throughout his passion. When one of the disciples strikes the high priest's servant, Jesus heals the man. Jesus stops the disciple's protest against the arrest by noting that this is the "time for the power of darkness." Jesus engages and responds when brought before the Sanhedrin; his words speak about the "power of God" that will bring about the reign of the Son of Man. When questioned by Pilate, Jesus responds with just one phrase; yet before Herod, Jesus refuses to speak.

Throughout Holy Week, we will continue to reflect on the events of Jesus' passion and death. As we meditate on the cross, we ask again and again what it means to make the statement of faith that Jesus, in his obedient suffering and dying, revealed himself to us as God's Son and brought to fulfillment the Kingdom of God.

DIVINE MERCY INVITE

You are invited to join the St. Lawrence PCCW on Sunday, April 27th at 3:00 p.m. in the reciting of the Divine Mercy Chaplet. We will also have a few red desserts and fruits being served in the basement after.

Jesus Wants to Live in Our Heart Always.

At the Last Supper, Jesus gave His apostles – the first priests – the command to repeat His actions and words: to “do this in memory of Me.” The presence of Christ, by the change of bread and wine in becoming His body and blood, takes place by the power of Jesus’ Word and the Holy Spirit. The priest, in the role of Christ through his ordination, pronounces the words of Jesus but their power and grace are God’s. At Mass, as the priest speaks the words of Jesus, the bread and wine become His body and blood by the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus wants us to receive Him at Mass every Sunday because He wants to live in our heart. Let’s pray this right now and every day this week.

Thank you Jesus for Father Albert as he acts in your Person, and thereby, we are able to receive You in holy Communion at Mass.

This week, read the passage of Jesus instituting the holy Eucharist at the Last Supper in Matthew 26:26-28.
