FROM OUR PASTOR

On this great feast of the Most Holy Trinity, the Church invites us to stand before the deepest mystery of our faith; that is God is not solitude, but communion; not isolation, but eternal love shared between the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

And into this mystery, the Gospel today speaks with astonishing simplicity: "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." These may be the most recognized words in all of Scripture, yet they are also among the most profound. In a few lines, we are given a window into the heart of the Trinity itself.

God so loved the world. Not simply humanity in the abstract. Not only the righteous, the holy or the successful. God loved the world - this wounded, broken, conflicted, sinful world. God loved the people who fall, people who doubt, people who wander, people who carry hidden griefs and burdens. God loved us before we ever thought of loving Him.

The feast of the Trinity teaches us that love is not merely something God does. Love is who God is. The Father eternally pours Himself out in love. The Son eternally receives and returns that love. The Holy Spirit is the living bond of that love.

From all eternity, God exists as self-giving communion. And because love always seeks to share itself, creation itself is born from divine generosity. The universe exists because love overflowed. and then comes the astonishing truth of the Gospel; when humanity fell into sin, God did not abandon His creation. The Father sent the Son. Many people imagine God is waiting to punish, eager to condemn, watching humanity with disappointment. but Jesus reveals something entirely different. The mission of Christ is rescue, not rejection. Salvation, not destruction, Mercy, not vengeance.

The cross is not the expression of God's hatred for sinners. it is the expression of God's relentless love for sinners. On the cross, we see the Trinity at work; The Father who gives, The Son who offers Himself, The Spirit poured out upon the Church and the world. The Trinity is not an abstract doctrine for theologians alone. it is the living reality into which we were baptized. At every baptism, the priest says: "in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." Not "names" - one God in three persons.

This means that the Christian life is not merely about following rules. It is about entering divine communion. Salvation is participation in the life of God Himself. That is why loneliness wounds us so deeply. we were made in the image of a relational God. We were created for communion with God and with one another. Sin isolates. Hared isolates. but grace draws us back into communion.

The Trinity also becomes the model for Christian living. The Father gives Himself completely. The Son receives everything from the Father and returns everything in love. The Spirit unites them in perfect charity. So too, every Christian family, every parish, every friendship, every vocation is called to reflect this divine pattern of self-giving love.

So today, the Church does not merely explain the Trinity. She worships the Trinity. We stand before the Father who created us, the Son who redeemed us, and the Holy Spirit who sanctifies us.

BEAUTIFICATION COMMITTEE

"Alone we can do so little, together we can do so much!" - Helen Keller

We are hoping to welcome a few more ladies to our Beautification Committee. This group is responsible for keeping our church looking beautiful throughout the year with flowers and seasonal décor. With more helping hands, we could create a simple rotation where each pair only handles one month – meaning you'd arrange flowers for just four Sundays a year. Please consider sharing a bit of your time and helping us continue this ministry that brings so much beauty to our parish. Your contribution would truly make a difference. If you are interested, please let Connie know. We will be scheduling a meeting beginning of June.

ST. MARY'S QUILTERS

The St. Mary's quilters will meet on the second and fourth Tuesdays on the month. Everyone is invited to join!
