From Our Pastor

Today, the Church celebrates the beautiful feast of All Saints, a day when we honor all those who have lived faithfully in Christ and now share in the glory of heaven. Some of these Saints are well known to us, Such as St. Peter, St. Paul, St. Francis of Assisi and St. Teresa of Calcutta. Others are unknown to the world, but their names are written in the heart of God.

Today is also a reminder that holiness is not reserved for a few extraordinary people. Every one of us is called to become a saint. We are called to live holy lives in our families, workplaces, communities and everyday encounters with others. In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us the Beatitudes. These are among the most beautiful and challenging words in the Bible. Jesus tells us who is truly blessed in the eyes of God.

The saints are not people who never experienced difficulties, temptations or failures. They were human beings like us. they experienced suffering, disappointment, fear, and moments of weakness. What made them saints was their willingness to trust God, to follow Jesus and to allow God's grace to transform their lives. The saints took the Beatitudes seriously.

The poor in spirit recognize that they need God. They do not depend entirely on their own strength, wealth or intelligence. They humbly acknowledge that everything they have is a gift from God. The merciful forgive those who hurt them. they do not allow hatred and resentment to control their hearts. they remember how much God has forgiven them and they extend that same mercy to others.

The pure of heart seek to love God sincerely. They do not pretend to be good in public while living selfishly in private. They strive to be honest, faithful and loving, even when nobody's watching. The peacemakers work to bring people together. they do not encourage division, gossip, or hatred. Instead, they seek reconciliation in their families, friendships and communities.

These are the qualities we see in the lives of the saints. And these are the qualities God wants to develop in us. Holiness is not simply about praying more, it is also about loving more, forgiving more, serving more, and becoming more like Jesus every day. we cannot claim to be close to God if we refuse to forgive our neighbors. we cannot claim to be holy if we treat others with cruelty. We cannot claim to follow Christ if we ignore those who are hungry, lonely, poor or suffering.

In today's Gospel, Jesus repeatedly promises a reward to those who live the Beatitudes; the kingdom of heaven, comfort, the inheritance of the earth, satisfaction, mercy, the vision of God and the joy of being called God's children. These promises remind us that our earthly life is not the end of our journey. We are created for eternal communion with God.

The feast of All Saints lifts our eyes beyond the concerns of this world and reminds us of our heavenly calling. The saints have already reached the goal toward which we are journeying. Their lives show us that God's promises are trustworthy and that a life of faithfulness is never wasted. We do not need to wait until tomorrow to begin becoming saints. We can begin today, in our homes, in our workplaces, in our parish and in every encounter with another person.

Let us pray for the grace to become poor in spirit, merciful in our relationships, pure in heart and faithful in times of difficulty. may our lives reflect the love of Christ so that one day, we may share in the eternal happiness of all the saints in heaven.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

IMPORTANT WORDS TO KNOW AND UNDERSTAND:

Profession of Faith

The Profession of Faith is a verbal expression of belief in what is revealed by God and taught by the Church. This is publicly professed in either the Apostles' Creed or the Nicene Creed at Mass. The first words of the Creed are "I believe," because faith is a personal response to God, accepting what He has revealed to be true. The Creed is a summary of the most important teachings of the Church.

OFFICE HOURS

Connie had foot surgery and will be working from home for a couple of weeks during her recovery. She will continue answering emails and returning phone calls, and she will be getting a ride to stop in the offices on Tuesdays to pick up anything that needs her attention.

If you need assistance, please leave a message at 608-687-8418 or email the church office at tresecclesiae@gmail.com.

PRAYER CHAIN

Keep in your Prayers

Please contact Connie in the office to find out how to reach the parish prayer chain for any private or public requests. Private means that only the team will be praying and public means that the person prayed for will be named in the bulletin for congregational and team prayers.

2026-2027 DIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL,

With this year's powerful theme:

Many Gifts, One Mission

is more than a slogan. It captures who we are as the Body of Christ. A seminarian's vocation, a catechist's witness, a teacher's skill, a volunteer's compassion, a family's prayer, a professional's talent, and a donor's sacrificial gift are all expressions of God's manifold grace. Through the Appeal, Bishop Battersby and diocesan ministries coordinate these gifts to support his call to pivot from maintenance to mission: from preserving activity to forming disciples, accompanying people, strengthening communion, and serving with apostolic purpose. I invite each of you to prayerfully consider how you can participate. No gift is too small, and every offering makes a difference. Together, we can fuel the good work God is doing in our Church. May God bless you for your faithfulness and generosity
